1. This office action, in response to the amendment filed 3/6/2007, is a final office action.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/6/2007 has been entered.
3. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 3/6/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The amendment to the claims does not further limit the claim scope. Claim 28 makes optional the use of the first and second codec information. The controlling means of Brewer discloses using the first and second encoding streams to generate the first and second base band signal as stated in the previous rejections to the claims. The newly added limitation discloses the codec information includes a moving vector, a picture type, a quantizing step size and a quantizing scale. The new limitation does not require steps to be performed and does not limit the claim to a particular structure. The newly added limitation merely discloses the codec information, which is optionally used in the claims, comprises certain data. MPEP 2111.04 discloses claim scope is not limited by claim language that suggests or makes optional but does not require steps to be performed, or by claim language that does not limit a claim to a particular structure. For this reason and the reasons stated in the previous office action, the rejections to the claims are maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 28-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brewer et al (US 6,262,777).

Regarding claims 28 and 46-61, Brewer discloses a method and apparatus for synchronizing edited audiovisual files. Figure 2 discloses a first audio decoding means (120) and a parallel second video decoding means (120). A detecting means matches the phases of the decoded signals. Audio segments are decoded and re-encoded to generate glue frames. The editing engine stitches together the processed audio and video segments into a single file. The newly created file substantially synchronizes the audio component with the video component (column 4, lines 6-21). Figure 2 discloses encoding means 114 (column 10, lines 20-34). Means for controlling the re-encoding means is provided for aligning the audio and video signals properly (column 7, line 63 to column 8, line 8 and column 8, lines 42-58). The codec information including a moving vector, a picture type, a quantizing step size and a quantizing scale does not require steps to be performed and does not limit the claim to a particular structure.

Regarding claims 29 and 30, Brewer discloses the controlling means re-encodes the signals according to the time positioning of the audio and video frames in figure 1B (column 7, lines 39-62).

Regarding claims 31 and 32, Brewer discloses the phases are matched to allow synchronization (column 7, line 63 to column 8, line 8).

Regarding claims 33-44, Brewer discloses the synchronization of the video frames (column 2, line 64 to column 3, line 11) and the synchronization of the video frames to the audio frames as stated above.

Conclusion

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
